

This object is used to record all Capital Outlay expenditures. Included are amounts paid for the acquisition of capital assets or additions to capital assets; land or existing buildings; improvements of grounds; building construction, remodeling, or additions; and equipment.

Lease purchases (agreement constitutes a purchase) shall be recorded appropriately as Sites, Buildings, or Equipment. A lease without option or intent to purchase is recorded within Object 5000, Rents and Leases.

Object 6000, Capital Outlay, is the controlling account that summarizes expenditures recorded in the following subsidiary object categories:

Expenditures for the purchase of land and incidental expenses of site acquisition, such as appraisal fees, title search and title insurance, surveys, and condemnation proceedings and fees.

If the site is not acquired, the incidental costs must be recorded within Object 5000, Other Operating Expenses and Services.

Expenditures for the costs of developing new sites or improving existing sites.

Applicable expenditures include:

landscape grading, seeding, and planting trees and shrubs;

constructing sidewalks, roadways, retaining walls, sewers, and storm drains;

installing hydrants;

treating soil and surfacing athletic fields and tennis courts;

furnishing and installing fixed playground apparatus, flagpoles, gateways, fences, and underground storage tanks that are not parts of building service systems;

demolition work in connection with improvement of sites; and special assessments against the district for capital improvements, such as streets, curbs, sewers, drains, and pedestrian tunnels on or off district property.

Parking lots and fencing may be treated as land improvements because they are typically adjacent to the buildings that they serve. assets and are considered part of the adjacent building. (Accounting Advisory No. 2000-01)
